INTERDISCIPLINARY CONFERENCE
ON ELECTRICS AND COMPUTER

Chicago - Illinois, USA

11-13 June
2024

CALL FOR PAPERS

WELCOME

We are inviting you to attend the 4. Interdisciplinary Conference on Electrics and Computer (INTCEC 2024), which will take place in Chicago, USA during 11 - 13 June 2024 under the organization of Lewis University. This fourth event will be in hybrid mode, thereby you can present your papers physically or online via a zoom link at the conference time. The goal of INTCEC 2024 is to gather scientists, engineers and researchers working on electrics, electronics and computer in an interdisciplinary manner. The event is expected to have cutting-edge studies on Electrical and Computer Systems. It will give an international and interdisciplinary media to present the technical studies and discuss the scientific and engineering issues to arrive at more complete systems for the applications of future world. Thus, our theme is "interdisciplinary" approach for the engineering problems on Electrics & Computer Sciences.
